Give us a sign!

By Mark Bennett

Have you ever noticed how sceptics respond to photos of UFOs? If the photo is blurry, they say it is too blurry to tell what it is. And if it is a really clear photo, they say it is too clear – it must be faked. Another thing non-believers may do is ask for a sign. Below in bold in inverted commas are extracts of the words of two extraterrestrial beings – Mars Sector 6 and The Master Aetherius – giving their response to this.

These beings are extremely advanced – spiritually and scientifically. The messages were channelled through Yoga Master Dr. George King, while he was in a positive samadhic trance, in November 1956.

Mars Sector 6:

“Subject – A Sign.

“Many brothers of Terra have requested from us a sign.”

“Terra” means Earth.

“Many signs have been given by people from other Planets, signs which should have proved to thinking terrestrial men beyond any doubt that we do exist, that we are indeed living entities, that we have indeed the interest of Terra at heart.”

The first point Mars Sector 6 makes is that the request for a sign has already been granted – many times. Not only this, but that these signs are enough proof – proof beyond doubt, providing only that we think. A rare virtue indeed on this planet!

This proof has at least three aspects.

- (1) That extraterrestrials exist.
- (2) That they are living entities.
- (3) That they want to help us.

We are told that all thinking people should know this. We have been given enough proof of this to be certain.

“As numerous, though, as these signs have been, they still do not satisfy certain terrestrial intelligences.”

And yet, it is still not enough for some people. It should be enough – but it is not.

This is Mars Sector 6’s response to such people:

I ask my brothers from Terra who require as a sign a landing of one of our craft in a prominent position, to give US a sign!

“Science has requested a sign from Flying Saucers. I ask science to give us their sign. What sign do we require? Their goodwill, their complete, open-minded honesty and their proof that if we reveal to them the secrets of the vibrations of crystals, these secrets will be used for the benefit of all.”

This is a very clever answer – but it is not clever for cleverness’s sake. It is true – and, on reflection, entirely reasonable!

They require three things from scientists before the Cosmic Masters (as we call advanced beings from other planets) will give them a sign that will satisfy them:

- (1) Goodwill.
- (2) Complete, open-minded honesty.
- (3) Proof that they will use their secrets of crystals for the benefit of all.

Now it is all beginning to make sense, isn’t it? How many people on Earth – scientists or not – are good and honest, and use knowledge for the benefit of all? Some, yes – but very few.

“We cannot reveal our science to the scientists of Terra until they prove to us their Godliness. We would only be instrumental in taking Terra back another seventy decades if we gave the secrets of our gravitational control to you now. Would it benefit you? Not so. Would it benefit the ordinary man? It would not. It would be used for belligerent purposes; a belligerence which would be covered by the camouflage of defence.”

The Cosmic Masters do not want us to be better people just for the sake of it. They are not moralising missionaries trying to impose their own ideology upon us. They are not refusing to share their knowledge simply because we do not meet their standards of virtue.

Not at all.

They are not sharing their advanced scientific knowledge with us – because it would not help us. On the contrary it would take us backwards. Here we are told that just one aspect of their science would take us back 700 years.

Why? Because it would be used for evil.

This evil would be carried out “under the camouflage of defence”. Here we have condemnation of much, if not all, of military activity on Earth.

Concise, insightful and cutting – yet subtle – this kind of remark is typical of the Cosmic Masters. There is no beating about the bush – he does not say that some of this defence may be necessary, or that some people would use this technology for good, or that such misuse would be understandable. Nothing like that at all.

“Then, science, know this: When you give unto us a sign, then will we give unto you a sign, the sign which you now require. This will be accepted as the measure of your goodwill.”

The Cosmic Masters – despite being literally alien – have a complete understanding of terrestrial psychology. They know exactly what sign the scientific community as a whole would require to accept their existence as living entities, with the best interests of Earth at heart.

The sign that these people require is obviously greater than the signs that satisfy the more spiritually-attuned truth-seeker. It would therefore make sense that they should have to work harder to get it. The work they have to do is to prove they are “good and honest, and use knowledge for the benefit of all”.

Here we see an example of how different the Cosmic Masters are from us. We do not, as a rule, share our technology with people for free just because they are good and honest.

We share technology for material gain.

The Cosmic Masters are not requesting any payment whatsoever. Just that we prove we are mature enough not to use it to harm each other! They are not afraid for their own safety – they are concerned about our safety.

And look how generous and patient they are! They are willing to go out of their way to give a big enough sign to scientists who refuse to believe in them, despite the fact that these scientists have already been given countless signs – which should have been enough!

I do not any longer have any doubt as to the existence of extraterrestrial beings visiting Earth. However, if I am really honest, sometimes I do struggle a little to believe that it is possible to be as good as they are. It is so unlike the way we are on Earth. Even good people on Earth are nothing like them. There is literally nothing the Cosmic Masters would not do to help us – if they have karmic permission from higher authority (beings even more advanced than them).

The Master Aetherius:

“Of course it is so. My friends, it is a pleasure to be able to speak to you again for I see the thought patterns of the majority of you, and I see that you are seekers after Truth. Some have tried many other ways, many other paths to peace, yet have failed to find peace. Dear friends, what is peace? Surely it is something which is above politics, above national interest, above even that thing which you upon Terra call love.”

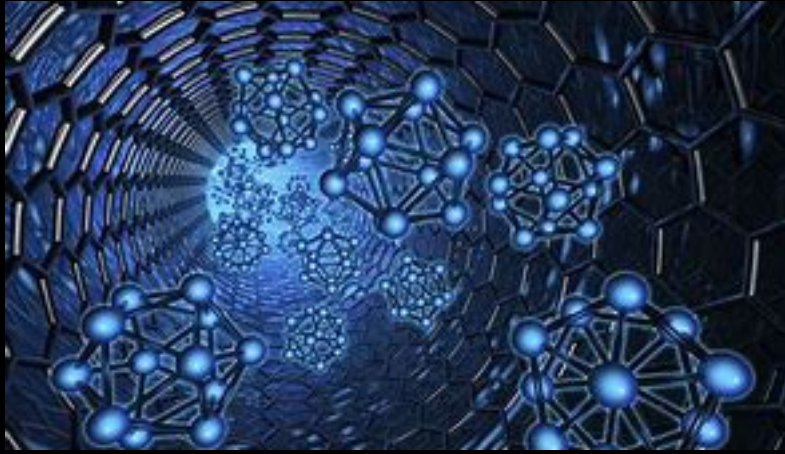

Here we are told that the way to find peace is to seek Truth.

Nothing else will work.

Seek Truth, find Truth, accept Truth – and live and act in the light of Truth. This is the one and only way. Money will not work. Sex will not work. Knowledge will not work. Power will not work.

Only Truth.

Truth is the key to peace.

Peace is more than politics, than nations – and even what we call love.

So what is it?

“Peace, dear friends, is enlightenment.”

Enlightenment is the realization of Truth.

Realization is not the same as knowledge. Someone could memorise 100 books on spiritual Truth – but not understand a single word. Realization is an inner process that transcends ordinary learning.

Inner peace and global peace are of course intimately connected – virtually the same. If the inhabitants of a planet are enlightened – are at peace within themselves – they will be at peace with each other. War would be unthinkable.

“There is only one sin in the whole Cosmic system, that is the sin of ignorance. Please spell that again – enlightenment – and you have peace.”

Please don't misunderstand this. When the Master Aetherius talks about “ignorance”, he is not talking about a lack of book-learning. He does not mean that if you are illiterate you are sinner, or that if you are university boffin, you are a great saint. Not at all.

By “ignorance” he is referring to the failure to realize Truth. We all have the opportunity to realize Truth – but few of us take this opportunity, or if we do, we don't take it fully, with rare exceptions. If you realize Truth – you will live and act in the light of it, or you will lose your realization.

One aspect of enlightenment is that what you want and what is right – are the same – and you know them both. Therefore you will always do the right thing.

“If Terra were enlightened there would be no such thing as a rich man; neither would there be a poor one. There would be no such thing as disease; there would be no such thing as a King; there would be no such thing as a dictator; there would be no such thing as a Prime Minister; there would be no such thing as money. Hospitals would not be needed. There would be no need for travel even, because on a correctly enlightened Planet, travel between one part of the Planet and another is done so easily by teleportation and thought projection.

“Think for a moment about what I have said. Just imagine for a moment, if these conditions were in vogue upon Earth NOW how happy you would all be. You would not need to worry about your family, your old age – infirmity stopping you from working hard for bare subsistence. Not at all would you. Subsistence would be guaranteed to you by all.”

All too often, people underestimate enlightenment. True enlightenment is not an opinion, or a vague state of wellbeing. It is not being educated – or adhering to the latest fad of public opinion. It is not even that pleasant feeling you get from spiritual practices, such as mindfulness.

Enlightenment is a highly elevated state through which you develop psychic powers – and, more importantly, become truly wise.

If our world were like this now – the Cosmic Masters would land immediately.
