THE AETHERIUS TEMPLE & DR. GEORGE KING

The Aetherius Temple is a unique, beautifully-designed place of worship and learning in South West London dedicated to the spiritual ideals of peace, freedom and enlightenment.

Lovingly renovated over a period of several years, the vast majority of the work has been carried out by spiritual devotees, many of whom have donated hundreds of hours of time completely free of charge – motivated purely by the desire to be of selfless service to others. This has ensured that not only is the craftsmanship of the highest standard, but also that the subtle vibrations of the building itself are conducive to enhancing spiritual awareness.

36 Kelvedon Road was purchased in 1998 by The Aetherius Society, the European Headquarters of which is just round the corner on Fulham Road. In 1999 the upstairs opened as the Inner Potential Centre, which quickly became popular in the local area, and well known throughout the South East as a haven of tranquillity amid the bustle of modern city life. Since the opening of the Temple in January 2013, The Aetherius Society's lectures and workshops have taken place on the ground floor, rather than upstairs in what was the Centre. The Temple also serves as the venue for free spiritual healing, Divine Services, Spiritual Push Services, commemorations of holy events, and Operation Prayer Power.

The Aetherius Society was founded in 1955 by Dr. George King (1919-1997) – a master of yoga and spiritual pioneer who dedicated his life to spreading, and acting upon, new age and eastern spirituality from a cosmic perspective. A medium, healer and visionary, he was a channel for intelligences from beyond Earth for over forty years – the essence of his teaching always being the importance of selfless service to others. The spirit of this philosophy lives on in The Aetherius Temple – so that spiritual seekers from all backgrounds and faiths can take advantage of his practical modern approach to the ancient wisdom that can change our lives – and the world – forever.

A warm welcome to The Aetherius Temple's programme of lectures and workshops in 2017!

From holy mountains to yoga breathing; from life on other planets to pendulum dowsing; from meditation to the power of prayer; from crystals to chanting sacred mantras – we have something for every spiritual seeker in our 2017 programme. Whether you are a total beginner – or have been practising spiritual techniques for decades – you will find the Temple to be an inspiring and welcoming environment with events to calm the mind, empower the soul and free the spirit.

We are delighted to be introducing the concept of King Yoga – the path of The Aetherius Society, in our programme. Find out more at our special event with award-winning international bestselling author Richard Lawrence on 14 May!

We very much look forward to meeting you!

Find real success through King Yoga

Richard Lawrence

Sunday 14 May – 2.30pm

£10 / £8 (Members & Friends)

“Success does not come to the wishers – it comes to the doers.” In these words, Dr. George King encapsulated his practical approach to finding real success – with spirituality at its heart.

As a very close disciple and friend of Dr. King for decades, Richard will share his experience of this great Master who demonstrated what he taught throughout his life. Richard co-authored Dr. King’s last book, Realize Your Inner Potential, which contains a unique collection of effective techniques for self-development and service to others.

He will help you to enhance your focus and increase your confidence; he will enable you to energise yourself for a fuller life; he will teach you techniques which can improve your own and others’ health, and show you how you can make a positive difference in the world. You will learn how to tap your limitless intuition and realize your true destiny; and how to open the door to inner peace which can so often elude us.

Through King Yoga you can discover the only success which really matters – and which really lasts.

An award-winning international bestselling author, Richard has frequently appeared on TV and radio internationally, and featured in numerous magazines and newspapers. Inspired, motivational and insightful, he has been described in Kindred Spirit as one "of the biggest talents in MBS".

Spiritual Push Services

(For times and dates, please request our ecclesiastical calendar.)

Eight times a year we hold one-hour Services to mark the beginning and end of holy periods called "Spiritual Pushes" – each of which lasts about one month. During these periods advanced compassionate beings from beyond Earth radiate a special kind of spiritual energy to all those involved in selfless service, greatly improving the karma of the world.

Commemoration Services

In The Aetherius Society we mark certain important spiritual events with Commemoration Services, which generally include mystic visualisation, prayers, mantra, readings of words of wisdom – and often the playing of recordings of communications given through Dr. King in a trance state. Some commemorations may also include a video presentation, or an address given by one of our Ministers, Priests or Bishops.

Global Healing through Operation Prayer Power

7.45pm most Thursdays & occasionally 2.15pm on Sundays

Using dynamic prayer and mantra we are able to invoke and store prayer energy in a spiritual power battery. This is later released in a concentrated form to help bring about ecological balance and relief from suffering upon our planet.
